To: Bob
Date: June 14
Subject: Football game and T-shirts

Dear Bob,
The Saturday game was exciting. I enjoyed it very much. It was the first time I have watched a game at the stadium.
Of course, I would like to watch another game on July 8. Another thanks for inviting me to buy a jersey, but this weekend, my family is going to visit my grandparents. I have no time this week, but I can join you anytime next week. I have a good idea about jerseys. Do you mind making our original T-shirts? In the shopping mall, I have found the store "Make your own shirts!" At the store, we can make our original ones and it's not so expensive! Let's talk about this at school tomorrow.
Jack

Minami wanted to try some musical *instruments in elementary school. Her brother was a member of the *wind band in junior high school and he played the clarinet. He told her that he really enjoyed playing the clarinet. She was interested in the wind band. She decided to join the wind band and play the clarinet in junior high school.

In April, Minami entered junior high school and joined the wind band. The wind band had 6 parts: There were 6 members in the clarinet part; 5 members in the flute part; 6 members in the trumpet part; 4 members in the tuba part; 10 members in the sax part; and 9 members in the percussion part. She played the clarinet well and enjoyed it. She practiced with the members after school. They taught each other how to play. Minami was able to improve her skills. To prepare for the wind band *competition in August, the members played *ensembles in the wind band twice a week. They practiced two *pieces: The Galaxy Express 999 and African Symphony. In summer vacation, they played ensembles every day.

On the day of the competition, Minami was very nervous because she had never *taken part in a big competition before. Each band had 12 minutes to perform on the stage. If they played more than 12 minutes, they would be *disqualified. Minami and other members listened to other school bands and waited for their turn to perform. When it was time for their performance, they came up to the stage and started to perform. After every school finished their performances, the competition *director announced results. Minami's school got the silver prize. Minami hoped that they would get the gold prize next year.
